Our Blue Serge Suits for Men

Have far more to commend them than the overworked "fast color" pet theme of most makers of clothes for men.

To put forth such a boast—unsupported by other merits—would certainly reflect upon the consistency of our standard.

Would you have your jeweler assure you that his diamonds are not paste?

But there are certain well defined features that constitute distinction in serge suits as we make them.

The models are created by our own designers, marked by originality and cleverness and finished with that extreme care for little details which our tailormen invariably exercise.

Suits of Serge-2 or 3 garment models, 1/2, 1/4 or 1/8 lined with mohair or silk, $15 to $33.

Two-Garment Serge Suits for Young Men, 13.50 Sizes 14 to 20 years.

Where standard is high it is rather difficult to connect in one's mind a price so low-but you have assurance that the price merely instances our ability to produce at little cost garments that in every way bear cut our ideas of distinction.
